HOW DID THE FUND PERFORM LAST YEAR AND WHAT AFFECTED ITS PERFORMANCE?

For the 12-month period ended October 31, 2024, the Fund’s Class I shares had a total return of 15.48%. The Fund is designed to capture the reinsurance risk premium by investing in a broad set of reinsurance-related securities, primarily focused on higher-yielding catastrophe bonds.

WHAT FACTORS INFLUENCED PERFORMANCE

Positive performance was a function of two concurrent market dynamics: a substantial rise in reinsurance premiums as a result of losses experienced from Hurricane Ian in 2022 as well as a supply-demand imbalance for capital in the reinsurance industry.

PERFORMANCE COMMENTARY

The Fund’s performance is largely based on the occurrence or non-occurrence of natural or non-natural catastrophe events or other loss events around the world, which impact the performance of reinsurance-related securities. The Fund’s exposures span many different regions and types of events covered. Positive performance was a function of two concurrent market dynamics: a substantial rise in reinsurance premiums as a result of losses experienced from Hurricane Ian in 2022 as well as a supply-demand imbalance for capital in the reinsurance industry. Despite five landfalling hurricanes in the U.S. during the 2024 hurricane season (including major Hurricanes Helene and Milton), the combination of generationally-high premiums earned during the year and higher deductibles for reinsurance contributed to the strong performance for the Fund during the fiscal year.
